

Life Strategies Feature of the Month: January 2015

Newly Revised: Job Developer Training

Life Strategies' 40-hour Job Developer course has recently been re-vamped. The course features:

- Updated resources, discussions, and activities
- New easy-to-follow format aligning to our other LearnOnline programs and courses
- One-week reading break mid-way through the course

We are proud to have the continued support of Jayne Barron, course instructor/co-developer, and the Job Developer's Resource Network.

A few words from Jayne:

As a Job Developer, you have an opportunity to significantly impact the working life of both employers and job seekers (i.e., candidates). You are the catalyst, the liaison, and the matchmaker; each role requires strategy and planning to be the most effective. Over the last 4 years, we've trained over 120 Job Developers to think and work differently – paradigms change and outcomes improve. Whether you are new to job development or experienced, I invite you to come and experience what this course will do for you!

The next fully online session starts February 18, 2015.

Cost: $595.00 + GST

- Save 10% if 3 or more courses are purchased on the same invoice
- One-time, $35.00 application fee will apply for new students

Are you interested in bringing this training on site in your area? We do have a blended course option with a face-to-face workshop (2.5 days) and online facilitation (1.5 weeks). We are always looking for hosts with training space (face-to-face component). For more information, please contact jayne@lifestrategies.ca. Please note: blended sessions will only run with a minimum of 8 students.
